1 Agreement and payment
Both pages and the identified attachments form this sale agreement when all buyers and an authorized dealer representative sign. No material blank may be completed after signing without written agreement. Pay the remaining balance by the stated deadline or under a separate signed credit contract. Deposits are credited once.

2 Financing condition
This is not a credit contract. If financing is a condition on the front, the purchase depends on the buyer accepting final written credit terms by the stated deadline. If that condition fails, either party may cancel before delivery and the dealer returns the deposit and trade. No delivery before final financing.

3 Trade ownership and payoff
The buyer owns the trade or has all owners' written authority and has disclosed known liens, title brands and mileage discrepancies. The dealer pays the identified lienholder the agreed payoff. Payoff changes require written reconciliation and buyer approval; return or credit excess funds. Do not sell or encumber the trade before financing is final.

4 Price and delivery
The itemized front-page figures control. Any correction to price, tax, fee or payoff requires explanation and written agreement. If the dealer cannot meet the delivery date, the buyer may accept a written extension or cancel and receive the deposit and trade. A delivery receipt does not release warranties, title duties or promises.

5 Deposits and cancellation
All deposits are refundable if the transaction is cancelled before delivery. No forfeiture or cancellation charge applies before delivery, despite the statutory warning. After delivery, cancellation or return depends on applicable law, any written return policy and the applicable signed contract.

6 Warranties and disclosures
The final Buyers Guide and separate written warranty state coverage. This agreement creates no AS IS or implied-warranty disclaimer and waives no mandatory warranty or remedy for unlawful conduct. History reports do not establish an accident-free history. Required brand and damage disclosures remain due; buyer acknowledgment does not waive legal rights.

7 Promises and optional products
Record every promised repair, accessory or other item on the front or a signed Promised Work Agreement, including cost and deadline. The dealer must honor those promises. Optional products require separate informed selection and applicable terms; this signature does not enroll the buyer.

8 Title registration and insurance
The dealer will complete required transfer filings and remit collected government taxes and fees as required by law. The buyer will provide accurate registration information and sign required documents. Required insurance must be effective before driving.

9 Written terms and legal rights
Put all sales promises in writing. Both pages, identified attachments and later signed amendments state the sale terms. The FTC Buyers Guide controls conflicts. Separate credit and warranty documents govern their subjects, subject to law. Minnesota and applicable federal law govern, including any other mandatory law.

10 Copies and signatures
Every buyer receives both pages and all applicable attachments. Enforceable terms survive an invalid term. Counterparts may form one agreement. For electronic signing, separately obtain any required electronic-delivery consent, present both pages and attachments before signature, and provide an accessible completed copy.
