NOTICE: Arbitration generally replaces a court trial before a judge or jury for covered disputes. Court review of an award is limited. Read this agreement before choosing.

Parties and scope. Buyer, co-buyer and seller identified in the purchase agreement mutually agree, if they elect below, to arbitrate disputes arising from this vehicle sale, representations, financing or related services, except the exclusions below. An assignee may invoke this agreement only to the extent permitted by law and the assigned contract. No unrelated third party receives enforcement rights by this form.

Administrator and procedure. The American Arbitration Association (AAA) will administer under its Consumer Arbitration Rules and applicable consumer standards in effect when filed, available at adr.org or by requesting a paper copy from seller. Seller must complete any required clause registration and business compliance before using this form. If AAA declines, the parties may agree in writing on another qualified consumer administrator; absent agreement the dispute may proceed in court.

Costs, place and relief. Seller pays arbitration charges above the consumer filing amount allowed by AAA, and pays that amount if needed for meaningful access. Each party may request a remote hearing or a hearing in the county where buyer lives. Reasonable discovery is available. The arbitrator must apply applicable substantive law and may award all individual remedies, statutory damages and attorney fees available in court, with a written reasoned award.

Preserved rights. Either party may use an eligible small-claims court. Government complaints and agency enforcement are unaffected. This agreement does not authorize repossession or waive required notices, statutory protections, claims or defenses. Claims that law forbids arbitrating are excluded. A court decides formation, enforceability and scope; the arbitrator decides the merits.

Individual proceedings. Covered arbitration proceeds individually, without class or representative proceedings, only where lawful. If that restriction is unenforceable for a claim, that claim proceeds in court; valid remaining terms remain effective. No nonwaivable public relief is restricted. Federal arbitration law applies where applicable; otherwise Minnesota arbitration law applies.

Choice and rejection. Acceptance is not a condition of purchase or credit. Buyer may reject within 30 days after signing by written notice identifying buyer, VIN and contract date delivered to seller at its completed contract address; rejection by either buyer rejects for both. Rejection does not change price or credit terms. A separate, conflicting arbitration clause must be reconciled before signing.
